Welcome! We're pleased that you want to become a part of our store. Here's how it works:

When you bring your items in, we will select what our customers will buy. Sometimes there will be items we cannot sell. Please understand that our customers' preferences must be our selection guidelines.

We base prices on supply and demand. We will get the best possible prices for you. If you have any pricing concerns they need to be discussed with us prior to your items being consigned. All items will have a small buyer's fee attached.

You receive 40% of the selling price. You may call to check on your account at the end of your consignment period, or stop in any time during store hours for your money.

We will display your items for 90 days. Your items will be subject to mark-downs and sales during this period.

We will do our best to safeguard your items, but we are not responsible for damage or loss.

Any items found with stains, missing buttons, broken zippers etc. will be marked down or donated without further notification.

If you would like to retrieve any unsold items, call us during the last week of your consignment period to schedule a pick-up date and we'll have them ready for you. We require a min. of 48. hours notice.

We will make a concerted effort to sell your items during your consignment period and those sales will be credited to your account. At the end of your consignment period, unsold items not picked up by the expiry day (marked below) will become the property of the store and may be donated, disposed of, or remain on the sales floor. Items sold after the consignment period ends are not credited to your account.
